News

These are exciting times in the book business. There are changes, growth, and opportunities. Authors have the most valuable part: content. Read, learn, and get out in front. Spend your time on where publishing is going not on where it is.

The Global Ebook Awards are not over. They are being expanded into a much larger, benefit-laden, year round, ebook promotion program.

Details will be published soon.

STORIES/INTERVIEWS/INFORMATION WANTED

NEED STORIES to flesh-out your book? List your wants here. Focus on a single topic and provide your contact information. Write tight: limit your listing to 100 words. Conform to the format so we can Copy\Paste and do not have to edit. Send your listing to DanPoynter@ParaPublishing.com Put "Stories Wanted" in the Subject line of your email. There is no charge for listings.

WANT TO CONTRIBUTE YOUR STORY? Contact requesters directly. Do not send stories, etc. to Dan.

STORIES REQUESTED:

1. I am looking for instances in recreation sports, run by the town. In our town, especially basketball and baseball, when teams were chosen through a draft, parents went out of their way to unfairly load teams, using all kinds of excuses and ploys. These were parents who had to win at all costs and parents getting their child maximum playing time so they could get a college scholarship. Example: a 7th-8th grade team, somehow the championship team wound up with the starting 7 players of the town's 8th grade road team. Also, any other rule-bending practices.
--Greg Miller, gbowm526@yahoo.com .

2. JOKES

At last count there were only 63,586 joke books published in the English Language, so obviously there is a pressing need for a new, fresh one. This one will be "by profession – jokes you can tell your spouse and golfing partner, but maybe not your mother." (To be broken down by profession–clever new (or old) jokes—but not "really gross" jokes). Will send contributors a free e-edition when published Send to this email address: william@elexpublishers.com

3. Proud 2-B Me Publishing

Seeking stories from high school valedictorians throughout the U.S. Please contact us if you were valedictorian from 2000-2011. Following up with past valedictorians and current. Who are you? Where are you?

4. I am a writer working on a book about relationships and family from the Black male perspective. I'm specifically looking to for never-married/separated/divorced fathers ages 35 and up to contribute via written essay or phone interview. The book will discuss the disintegrating family unit and what it will take to keep Black couples and families together for the long haul. The book will also present their take on what holds them back from marriage, why they can't seem to find and hold onto true love, etc. and present advice and recommendations from experts as well. Please contact me at info@dareeallen.com.

Gary Towner is the author of the paperback and Kindle Horror/Sci-Fi novel, Pestilence, nominated for the Dan Poynter Global ebook Awards, and much more:

Here is what Floyd Largent, Professional Editor has to say in his review of Pestilence:

"I'm always eager to read a new Gary Towner novel, because I know I can count on three things: an entertaining story: unrelenting action: and diamond-bright, three-dimensional characterization. His latest, Pestilence, is a perfect example. This gripping story is Sci-Fi horror at its best: a taut, cautionary tale of the evil that can erupt when scientific curiosity, corporate arrogance, and military ruthlessness collide in an arena with no ethical oversight. Be careful—if you read Pestilence, you might not merely be entertained. You might actually learn something... and you just might wake up worried in the middle of the night."

D. ParaReviews

REVIEWS SELL BOOKS. Reviews make a book stand out. We can help each other by posting (five star) reviews at Amazon.com, B&N.com, BooksAMillion.com and other web sites.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO REVIEW BOOKS in your area of interest/expertise, contact the listing publisher directly with your Postal address. Do not send your request to Para Publishing. Please award the book at least four stars or decline to review it. A review with fewer stars is harmful to sales. The book you receive is yours to keep. If you agree to review a book and receive it from the author, please let him/her know that you have and that you will contact them again after you complete your review.

IF YOU WANT YOUR BOOK REVIEWED on Amazon.com, B&N.com, etc, list it here in Publishing Poynters Marketplace (no charge). You must be willing to send a book and promotional materials (review-book package) to readers of Publishing Poynters Marketplace who contact you (usually 5 to 10 copies). Include the number of pages in your description and for children's books, list the age level for which the book is written. Make sure the book is already listed at Amazon.com.

Just send your request and description to DanPoynter@ParaPublishing.com
Draft your request so that I do not have to edit it. Make it SHORT (100 words max), no italics or bold type. Just describe the book in a few words; don't send a lengthy review of it. Lengthy submissions will be returned for rewriting or ruthlessly cut. Reviewers only need enough information to see if they have expertise and an interest in your category. Supply full contact information including your email address. Write the draft as it should appear so that I do not have to do more than Copy\Paste. Put "Review Wanted" in the subject line.

4. Long Distance Romance.

Available NOW from SmashWords.com. You can download to your computer or E-Reader and read at your convenience.

When you unexpectedly fall in love, don't you take it for what it's worth? Don't you love the person while you can? When you can? What if they live on the other side of the globe though? Could you handle that long of a distance? Patience becomes the word when two women of independent character fall unexpectedly in love. From different lifestyles, to different geographic locations, the problems of maintaining this relationship seem astronomical. Just when they think they have solved these minor problems, new ones seem to pop up. Will they survive a Long Distance Romance?

Eliza is from the Midwestern United States, Wisconsin. Independent, a business woman who has finally achieved her dream. She is determined to fulfill and continue to live this dream when in walks a woman that knocks the old dreams out of her head for new ones. Will she someday have the woman of her dreams? Should she abandon that what she knows for the unknown? Can she have what she knows she wants?

Krystal is from Austria. Rich, cultured, and bored; she has seen everything and done everything. A side trip on another trip to the United States proves to be interesting when she walks into Eliza's store and is knocked on her back side by the feelings that this woman provokes. The distance thing is easy to someone who owns a jet but even she has responsibilities back home. Will she be able to have this woman she has fallen so deeply in love with? A woman who fascinates her, intrigues her, and challenges everything she is? Even if all her dreams come true, is it enough to keep them together? Also, if you are interested you may want to befriend me on FACEBOOK to follow news of the release of new stories and books!

Keep Reading!

7. A "Heritage" Gem by Larry Eugene Gray. Pipe smoking ghosts, a long time resident spirit, the mysterious shadow-people, skeleton in the wall - it's all here in The House That Captured the Innkeepers. Love, murder, mystery and intrigue - albeit in an unexpected fashion. You will laugh and you may cry, but you will enjoy the experience.

In his first book, Larry's Piscean sense of humour (a blend of irony and bodacious cheek) comes through in a delightful manner. You will thoroughly enjoy his presentation of many amusing and fascinating global guests hosted over the years with heart-felt sharing of some very poignant personal experiences.

A most amusing and entertaining read.

12. Woven from the literary loom of Linda Cousins-Newton's work as an ancestral storyteller/historian, FREE GLOBALLY!--The International Underground Railroad, is shared as "conversational history from the heart--with a touch of humor." The 250-page work gives an account of the slavery era's Underground Railroad's extension from the United States to varied global terrain ranging from The Bahamas to Mexico, from Canada to Africa, with specific attention to the Black Seminole freedom quests. Interlocked in the story's fabric are accounts of the author's personal experiences as a journalist/cultural traveler to varied global realms that the 19th century "liberty embracers" touched upon, including initiating a project to honor Underground Railroad heroine, Harriet Tubman in Ghana and meeting, marrying, and performing with her husband, Steve "Papa" Newton, a Bahamian Black Seminole descendant.

13. Food Allergy and Gluten-Free Weight Loss: Control Your Body Chemistry, Reduce Inflammation, and Improve Your Health

Understand and work with your body's physiology, and you can lose weight permanently
FGWLFrontCover.JPGFGWLFrontCover.JPGand without hunger. Although this book is directed at those with food allergies or gluten intolerance – whose problems with inflammation and high-ryce diets exacerbate weight issues – anyone who needs to lose weight CAN with the principles in this book. A missing piece of the weight loss puzzle is that overweight itself causes inflammation which inhibits the action of the body's master weight control hormone, leptin, thus making permanent weight loss near-impossible. Traditional weight loss diets rarely succeed long-term due to this as well as other factors addressed in the book.

14. The Robin Hood Chronicles

A half-serious attempt to re-create in fiction the reality that may underlie the Robin Hood legend. It's different from any other Robin Hood book: not Sherwood Forest but Barnsdale Heath, no Maid Marian. The reason is that it's based on the oldest ballad sources and the biography of a real Robyn Hod who was a yeoman to Edward II (as Robin became in one of the ballads). Change is coming.

Young Cloud Dancer's peaceful life at Acoma Pueblo crumbled before her eyes with the onslaught of war at the hands of the Spaniards. Of those who had come to help, many of the Apache warriors had died. Her new love, White Hawk, of the Apache, was lost to her. Alone and bitter, the beautiful maiden learned the fierce Apache ways of her lost love and vowed never to kneel before the enemy again.

But Spirit Warrior White Hawk was still very much alive. His heart knew boundless joy when he found Cloud Dancer had not perished in the massacre of her people. But the lovers face a new struggle as tribal conflict and the ever-encroaching Spaniards threaten their sweet reunion and the building of a new life together. .

Saga of a Greek family during the Greek War of Independence (1821-1829) from the Turkish Ottoman Empire. Set in the craggy mountains of the Peloponnese peninsula in Southern Greece. After the Turks murder Giorgi's parents, he and brother Yianni join the outlawed Greek guerrillas, seeking revenge. Ensclosed in deep caves they live and train to fight the Turks. Yearning to join forces with his childhood hero, Kapetan Zaharias, Giorgi encounters many obstacles. Far below in the valleys, the overworked and overtaxed peasants toil incessantly in the fields to survive. A poignant tale of love and survival.

26. When We Pipe, God Shall Dance

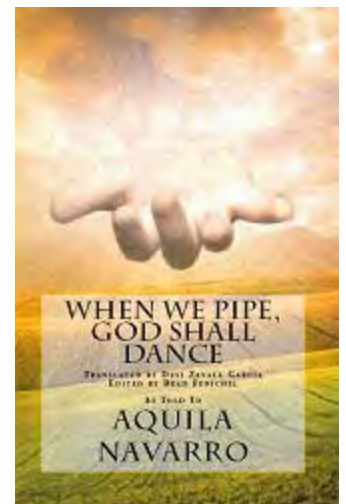

Paperback - 240 pages

ISBN: 978-1451515053

Currently published in: Paperback(Amazon), Kindle(Amazon), Nook(B&N), and Google eBook formats.

This book targets a specific audience: Christian (protestant/evangelical) youth and adult readers looking for a more profound personal connection with God. So, it's a self-help book, but presented as fiction -- along the lines of Who Moved My Cheese?

I'm specifically looking for reviewers familiar with (and interested in) this type of material, and who would therefore be willing to rate the book -- five stars, of course! :O) -- based on its level of excellence in content/presentation, rather than on the reader's personal agreement/disagreement with the subject matter.

See a preview at the book's website: <http://www.WhenWePipeGodShallDance.com>
