

Introduction for Dan Poynter, CSP.

It is unfortunate when a professional speaker makes a mistake but it is tragic when we do not learn from the occasion and blunder again.

Dan Poynter will share stories of speaking professionally; some events happened to him (he has the bruises to prove it) and some to other speakers.

Each story is a lesson learned.
Some events will encourage you to perform the same way but others will warn you not to go there.

This program is about you and what you do.
Learn so you will not embarrass yourself in front of your audience.

It gives me great pleasure to introduce . . .
Dan Poynter.
